

Texas AgriLife Extension - Texas A&M University System
Department of Wildlife and Fisheries Sciences
In cooperation with Texas Parks and Wildlife and the Henderson County Wildlife Committee presents:

BASS TECH:

The Technology to Manage for Success

HANDS-ON DEMONSTRATIONS:
Pond seining, electrofishing, identifying weeds, aging fish and more

POND ECOLOGY:
BUILDING BETTER HABITAT
SOLVING WATER QUALITY ISSUES
STOCKING FOR SUCCESS
IMPROVING EXISTING PONDS AND LAKES
FISH POPULATION ASSESSMENT
AQUATIC VEGETATION MANAGEMENT
TROPHY BASS MANAGEMENT
TROUBLESHOOTING PROBLEMS

“ASK THE EXPERTS” PANEL

TFFC BEHIND THE SCENES TOUR

INDUSTRY TRADE SHOW

March 23 & 24, 2012

Texas Freshwater Fisheries Center
5550 FM 2495, Athens, TX

Registration:
 $70 by March 16th, 2012
 $100 from March 17th – 24th, 2012

Register on-line at <http://agriliferegister.tamu.edu> or call 979-845-2604.

Questions? Contact Billy Higginbotham, 903-834-6191 b-higginbotham@tamu.edu or Michael Masser, 979-845-7370 m-masser@tamu.edu

Bass Tech: The Technology to Manage for Success

Name: _____
 Address: _____
 Telephone: _____

Return completed form to:
 Texas AgriLife Extension Conference Services, 2139 TAMU,
 College Station, TX 77843-2139
 Fax: 979-862-4511

Or register online at:
<http://agriliferegister.tamu.edu>

Registration Fees* (Per Person)

Pre-registration $70 _____
 (Must be received by March 16th)
Registration $100 _____
 (Received on or after March 17th)
Total Amount Enclosed _____

Check ___ Payable to “AgriLife Extension” or Credit Card (specify):
 ___ Mastercard ___ Visa ___ Discover
 Card No. _____ Exp Date _____
 Signature _____

*Includes proceedings on CD, speaker notes, management calendar, Saturday lunch, breaks, TFFC entry fee, Industry Trade Show and optional Friday afternoon behind-the-scenes tour of the TFFC. A total of 3 TDA pesticide recertification credits will be offered to licensees attending the conference.